Once again iMAPS New England is hosting a Holiday Party and we're inviting all friends and colleagues from around the region to join us for a celebration of this festive season. Whether or not you are a member of iMAPS, another technical-professional society or would simply like to do some socializing and networking, we encourage you to come for the fun.

The Specially Reduced Registration Fees are modest and design to be attractive for bringing a spouse or guest.

There won't be a typical technical presentation but there will be lots of Holiday Cheer PLUS Music, Dancing, Prizes AND a brief talk by Matt Flood, Science Teacher from Billerica Memorial High School and Leader of their FIRST ROBOTICS TEAM.

Join your old friends or make new friends by partying with iMAPS New England this holiday!!

Sincerely,

John Blum, President - iMAPS New England Chapter
